

CREATING A COVER LETTER

Are cover letters necessary?

The increasing popularity of e-mailed, Web-based, and faxed resumes have people wondering if cover letters remain a relevant tool in today's job search. Generally, a cover letter should accompany each resume. The cover letter allows you to demonstrate your ability to write and offers the first statement of why you should be hired.

What is the best way to e-mail a cover letter?

If an employer requests that you send your cover letter and resume through e-mail, you can:

- 1) send your cover letter and resume as attachments (e.g., Microsoft Word documents),
- 2) copy your cover letter into the body of your e-mail message and attach your resume, or
- 3) cut and paste your cover letter and resume into the body of your e-mail message (which eliminates your formatting).

Dear Mr. Smith:

The Community Development Organization recently posted a listing for an Event Planning Intern on its Web site. After reviewing the requirements for the position and learning more about your organization, I am very interested in applying for this internship.

As a junior Communications major at the San Diego State University, I possess many of the skills that you require for this internship. Last year, I volunteered on SDSU's Social Issues Conference committee, which provided me with excellent experience in planning a complex event. I assisted with scheduling rooms, ordering catering, working with outside vendors, as well as helping our keynote speaker with his travel arrangements and other needs.

In addition to possessing knowledge and experience related to event planning, I would bring excellent clerical skills to the Community Development Organization. For the past three years, I have worked at the front desk of the Registrar's office. In this position, I assist the SDSU community and am trusted to enter confidential and detailed information in the master database.

Thank you for considering my application. I would bring a strong work ethic and a genuine interest in event planning to your organization. I will call you next week to discuss the possibility of an interview to further discuss my qualifications. If you have any questions, please contact me at 619/555-1234.

Sincerely,

Carina Career

Dear Ms. Harris:

I am writing to apply for the Sales and Marketing Assistant position that High-Tech Firm posted with SDSU Career Services. Paula McLain, an associate at your firm and a recent SDSU graduate, has encouraged me to apply.

Your advertisement states that hard-working individuals with excellent communication and organizational skills are the best candidates for this position. I am a hard worker with the education and internship experience needed to work effectively with your clients. As an intern with Go-Med, a high-tech medical supply company, I assessed client needs and promoted product lines. I learned the value of asking questions and listening to learn what clients want from a service provider.

I combine effective communication with strong organizational skills. Over the last four years, I have developed excellent time management practices by balancing the demands of part-time work, school, internships, and volunteer service. I look forward to applying all these skills in working as a sales assistant for your firm.

I would like to discuss how I might meet your needs in filling this position. I can be reached at (619) 555-5555 to arrange an interview. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
