🎩 Aztec of the Month 🎩

“Ismael Arvizu, born and raised in the Calexico/Mexicali borderlands. Graduate from Calexico High, a proud community college transfer from IVC to San Diego State main campus for a BS in Televisions Film Media but quickly switched to Xicanx Studies. Ethnic studies is a passion and an ideology they follow with the Minor in TFM. Also, the President for Xicanx Sin Fronteras club, organizing to hopefully finish a mural and play script for SDSU-IV students to participate in. Recently hired as a student assistant for the Cross-Cultural Center. Belonging to the CCC advisory committee, as well as the IRA's, shuttle service, and the addition of the Xicanx Studies minor. Also, is one of the founders of a grassroots local activist group, Calexico Needs Change, encouraging community work and political empowerment.”

“Change the perspective, change the story.”
